

Overview of lecture content of HGO courses per V23

JGG 31.01.2023

Related HGO courses in development, labour and economic geography

HGO4501 – Development	HGO4605 – Transformations in the global economy: value chains and production networks	HGO4604 – The futures of work
Introduction to HGO4501: Development, human geography and law	Introduction	Geographies of labour
Natural resource extraction and development	A shift towards the East and the South	Intermediaries, digitalisation and the precariat
Environmental justice perspectives on global North-South relations	Changing geographies of consumption: Economic systems and everyday practices	Labour regimes
Struggles over land and territory in the global South – from global political economic pressures to local mobilization	Embeddedness, institutions, power and governance (core concepts)	Worker agency
Urban development and Cities of the Global South	Innovation systems and technological change	Sustainable and just transitions
Housing in the Global South	Workers in chains and networks	Global homes and industrial citizenship
Drivers of migration in a development perspective	Global destruction networks	Representation at work
Development impacts of migration and transnationalism	By way of conclusion	Intersectional worker struggles
Social protection in the Global South
Closing lecture & exam preparation

Related HGO courses in economic geography and labour geography

HGO4601 – Economic geography: Institutions, evolution and sustainability transitions	HGO4605 – Transformations in the global economy: value chains and production networks	HGO4604 – The futures of work
Background and objective	Introduction	Geographies of labour
Evolutionary economic geography	A shift towards the East and the South	Intermediaries, digitalisation and the precariat
Evolution in economic geography	Changing geographies of consumption: Economic systems and everyday practices	Labour regimes
Technological innovation systems and the multilevel perspective on transitions	Embeddedness, institutions, power and governance (core concepts)	Worker agency
Cases studies	Innovation systems and technological change	Sustainable and just transitions
Policy	Workers in chains and networks	Global homes and industrial citizenship
Economic geography and the broader sustainability questions	Global destruction networks	Representation at work
	By way of conclusion	Intersectional worker struggles

HGO courses in urban geography

HGO4201 – Urban geographical theory	HGO4202 – Urbanism - urban policies and planning	HGO4203 – Sustainable urban transformations
Introductory lecture	Market-oriented modes of governance: neoliberalism	Introductory seminar
Lecture	Market-oriented modes of governance: the distinctive city	S&L key challenges and concepts
Urbanization and counter-trends	Area-based policies	S&L "smart cities" and sustainable urban infrastructures
Contemporary urbanism	Urban policies and urban transformations in post-Wall Eurasia	S&L social sustainability and urban commons
Divided cities, urban geopolitics and the challenge of social media	Housing policy and housing regimes	S&L urban metabolism, social practices and interventions
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Student-led mini-fieldtrips 	Urban planning and architecture	Term paper seminar
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Student-led mini-fieldtrips 	Planning and policies for suburban spaces	Panel discussion about socially inclusive strategies
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Student-led mini-fieldtrips 	New modes of planning: theory	S&L vulnerabilities and resilience
Comparative urbanism	New modes of planning: practice	S&L sustainable transformations
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Student-led mini-fieldtrips 		S&L mobilities and transport
Segregation, neighbourhood effects and spaces of encounter

HGO courses in environment/climate and political geography

HGO4301 – The Social Dimensions of Environmental Change	HGO4302 – Transformations to Sustainability	HGO4401 – Democratization and civil society in developing countries
The border war between nature and society	Welcome to the Anthropocene	Introduction
The commons, governance and sustainability	Social Tipping Points	Democratization: Transitions to formal democracy
Political ecology: politics, scale and global connections	Concepts and Theories of Transformative Change	Representation: Political parties and democratic politics
Environment and conflict	The Politics of Transformation	Representation: Social movements and contentious politics
Governmentality and environmental subjects	Critical Approaches to Transformation	Autocratization: Democratic decline and autocratic deepening
Knowing climate	Transforming the Commons	Autocratization: Democratic resilience and resistance
The politics of climate change	Governing Transformations	International engagement in democratization
Conclusion: Anticipatory science and uncertainty	Deep Transformations: Linking Capacities and Agency	International liberal peacebuilding
	Deeper Transformations: What is Real?	Illiberal peacebuilding and authoritarian conflict management
	The Art of Transformation	Conclusion: Lessons and policy implications