Feel free to elaborate.

- I loved the practice in front of the camera (day 2). Great day that really helped me both communicating my research and gaining confidence in how to do so well.
- More practical exercise would be even better!
- it would have been great if the advance exercise had been clearer and if participants would have a copy of their interview. could also have been good to screen in the large or larger groups too.
- To gode dager! Opplevde foreleserne som engasjerte og godt forberedt, noe jeg setter stor pris på. Fredagen var super. Svært lærerik! Torsdagen kunne kanskje vært brukt enda mer effektivt. Hva om dere tenker litt mer praktisk rettet veiledning på det å skrive en kronikk/debattinnlegg?
- As the course was neither "large or small", answers are nonsensical.

Feel free to elaborate.

- I cannot sign up for anything on Studentweb, but that goes for all courses and is not particularly related to this course.
- As the interface was neither "large or small", answers are nonsensical.

Do you have general comments on the course or specific proposals for improvement?

We have already taken into account that the assignments for the course were given with a too short deadline. Please give us your honest opinion if you wish to elaborate.

- Interesting course!
- 1. Please: Bring in a woman and an international researcher to co-lead this. That's better than two Norwegian males. That helps solve many of below problems. 2. Generally, Torgeir and Ole Jacob did not fully recognize the different challenges that women and international researchers face in Norwegian media landscape. Indeed; some of their examples were edgy. The only challenge for women Thorgeir Storesund Kolshus mentioned was about taking pictures for newspaper; one story about a woman being taken a photo of from below (while wearing a skirt), which may be a particular example, but FAR from the most important/relevant. 3. Moreover, only example of international publishing was brief picture of a The Guardian article. More emphasis on international communication would be great. 4. Why did not the woman from the communications team co-lead it? She only presented a pre-written text and commented some. This seemed very odd when two men co-led it. 5. Great efforts by Corporate Communications, they were good! (Even though all were white males in their 40s-ish.) However, why not include also a researcher to talk about balance between popularizing vs not going to far.
- This course is excellent, if anything, it could be longer.
- At vi fikk en kort deadline skapte nok litt stress, men korte tidsfrister er ganske vanlig i arbeidslivet, så det var helt håndterbart. Det skjerpet nok flere av oss:). Godt jobba!
- I believe you guys should edit the questionnaire.
